PROJECTS

Automated Parking Assistance | C++, HTML, CSS Jan' 26

- Our system aims to automatically detect vehicles, display available parking slots in real-time, and control gates and also have potential for mobile app integration, AI-based license plate recognition.
- It also alerts for overcapacity using a buzzer, creating an efficient, low-cost solution for small traffic areas.

RuralAssist AI | AI/ML Project Jan' 26

- Developed an innovative AI-powered assistant to help rural communities access information and practical solutions for everyday problems.
- Applied an AI/ML-focused approach to address community-oriented information needs through an accessible digital solution.

FAKEBUSTER | AI Project May' 26

- Engineered an AI-powered Fake News Detection System to identify potentially misleading information and help prevent misinformation.
- Designed an automated detection concept focused on improving the reliability of news content through AI-based analysis.

Snake Game | Python Nov' 25

- Developed an interactive Snake Game using Python with real-time keyboard controls, dynamic movement, food generation, and score tracking.
- Implemented collision detection for walls and the snake's body to manage game-over conditions and maintain smooth gameplay.

Portfolio Website | HTML, CSS Mar' 26

- Developed a digital collection of my academic projects used to showcase my skills and track my performance.
